

Congressional Reaction:

Matt Rosendale (@RepRosendale): Today, I led 63 @HouseGOP colleagues in support of the truckers protesting COVID-19 vaccine mandates, and urging Joe Biden to work with Canada to lift the mandates on essential travel at the border. Truckers are the lifeblood of our nation—they deserve better. #HonkHonk<https://t.co/fl2rWIWdi9>

The letter states in part, “In 2020, trucks carried more than 70.9% of the value of surface trade exchanged between the U.S. and Canada—valued at $695 billion,” “The vaccination requirement on truck drivers will have disastrous consequences for American commerce.” The letter goes on to state that the Canadian Trucking Alliance expects as many as 22,000 Canadian and 16,000 American drivers to forgo cross-border trips, retire, or quit in response to the new entry requirements. This type of disruption will only further damage our already crumbling supply chains.

“Truckers are the lifeblood of our nation, and I am proud to see truck drivers throughout the U.S. and Canada boldly take a stand to put an end to tyrannical COVID-19 vaccine mandates, including at our northern border,” said Representative Rosendale. “This vaccine mandate on essential travel hurts our truckers’ ability to provide for their families, will cause our supply chain to deteriorate even further, and will prevent Americans from obtaining essential products they need. I urge President Biden to work with the Canadian government to end the COVID-19 vaccination mandates at the border and support American truckers before our nation suffers anymore.”

In addition to Rep. Rosendale, the letter was signed by Representatives Elise Stefanik (NY-21), Jim Banks (IN-03), Cathy McMorris Rodgers (WA-05), Scott Perry (PA-10), Andy Biggs (AZ-05), Madison Cawthorn (NC-11), Lauren Boebert (CO-03), Ralph Norman (SC-05), Warren Davidson (OH-08), Cliff Bentz (OR-02), Chris Jacobs (NY-27), Brian Mast (FL-18), Bob Gibbs (OH-07), Buddy Carter (GA-01), Scott DesJarlais, M.D. (TN-04), Jeff Duncan (SC-03), August Pfluger (TX-11), David Rouzer (NC-07), Jack Bergman (MI-01), Bob Good (VA-05), Randy Weber (TX-14), Mary Miller (IL-15), Claudia Tenney (NY-22), Don Young (AK), Chip Roy (TX-21), David B. I stand with the truckers protesting the vaccine mandate at the Canadian border. President Biden’s supply chain crisis has gone on far too long and its past time he works to reverse it. Thanks @RepRosendale for taking the lead on this letter.

Today I joined 63 of my colleagues in support of the truckers protesting the vaccine mandate. President Biden should work with Prime Minister Trudeau to eliminate the mandate on essential travelers.

Rain or shine, our truckers work tirelessly to ensure our shelves are full. The last thing they need is Democratic-led big government forcing them to get vaccinated to do their job. I am proud to join my colleagues led by @RepRosendale in this important letter. #HonkHonk

The American people (and Canadian Truckers) are right! Thank you, friend.

Kevin Hern (@repkevinhern): @RepChipRoy is right. Overreaching COVID-19 policies have

A social credit system perverts the financial system to make it coercive - as Canada illustrates. I seem to have forgotten this word that describes collaboration between an authoritarian government using businesses to impose its will on the population... □What is that word?

□ Perhaps America should welcome refugees from Canada? As I've said, the political left envies China's Communist Party.

Balaji Srinivasan (@balajis): Canada is ordering banks to freeze accounts without court order. And by granting broad immunity, they're formally deputizing financial institutions as digital police. All pretense of "democracy" is gone. There's no consent of the governed. It's just wokes vs workers now.

State Reaction

Governor Greg Gianforte @GovGianforte · 14h

Today I spoke with Canadian Transport Minister Omar Alghabra, at his request. Montana appreciates our partnership with Canada and her provinces. Our supply chains must flow fully for our consumers, and to do that the Canadian government should eliminate its trucker mandates.

READOUT OF GOV. GIANFORTE'S CALL WITH CANADIAN TRANSPORT MINISTER OMAR ALGHABRA

Governor Greg Gianforte today spoke with Canadian Transport Minister Omar Alghabra about the vaccine and quarantine mandates the Canadian government reimposed on cross border truckers. The governor cautioned the minister about the negative impacts the prime minister's COVID-related mandates are having on transportation, trade, and travel. Governor Gianforte pressed Minister Alghabra on the Trudeau government's plans and timeline to eliminate the mandates against truckers, which are estimated to force thousands of drivers out of the trucking industry if not reversed. Governor Gianforte praised provincial governments for easing and eliminating their COVID-related mandates, and expressed hope the prime minister will take similar action. Citing Montana providing vaccinations to Canadian truckers free of charge last year as an example, the governor emphasized the importance of leaders of Montana and Canada to keep an open dialogue to address bilateral issues.
